

Blessing For the Coming Storm

Let not your hearts be troubled. Be it known this day that the Hand of the Lord rests upon you and your seed.

I declare that you are the blessed of the Lord and that the Blessing of the Lord shall search you out and find you to bestow upon you God's bounty.

I proclaim that you will see with your eyes the reward of the wicked. But because you have made the Lord your refuge, even the Most High your habitation, there shall no evil befall you; neither shall any plague come nigh your dwelling. God has given His angels charge over you to keep you in all your ways.

God declares that He will deliver you and set you on high. You will call, and He will answer. He will be with you in trouble and will honor you. You shall have long life, and you shall see the salvation of the Lord.

I declare, proclaim, and decree that this house shall be a "Goshen": a place of safety, a place of security, a harbor of peace, a place of rare abundance, and a house of more than enough.

Your alms shall be remembered as a memorial before the Lord. Your love for Israel (both the land and God's people, the Jews) will not go unrewarded.

The heavens are open over this place and this people. Let not your hearts fear or tremble. God is not a man that He should lie, but His Word is sure, and it will surely come to pass with every benefit and blessing He promised.

Now the Lord Bless you in Jesus Name!
Go in peace.

-- Spoken by Pastor John A. Kilpatrick over Church of His Presence congregation on Sunday, November 23, 2008.